Date of decision: 06/11/96

ORAL JUDGMENT :

1. This Special Civil Application has been entertained on the basis of the petitioner's Application dated 21-9-96 sent by detenu through Baroda Central Jail.

2. The petitioner has challenged the detention order dated 2-5-96 passed by the District Magistrate, Jamnagar whereby the petitioner has been detained under the provisions of the Gujarat Prevention of Anti Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act'). The detention order was executed on 4-5-96 and since then the petitioner is detained at Baroda Central Jail, Baroda.

3. The grounds enclosed with the detention order show that 3 criminal cases were registered against the petitioner at Kalavad Police Station for offences under the Bombay Prohibition Act. Besides these, the detaining authority has taken into consideration the statements made by 4 witnesses on 21-4-96 against the petitioner's anti social activities and the petitioner has been detained as a bootlegger.

4. Ms.Bunna Dutta, learned counsel, appointed by this Court as a pleader of the detenu, has challenged the detention order on more than one grounds. But the learned counsel for the petitioner has kept her arguments confined to the question that even if the allegations and materials against the petitioner are taken to be correct on its face value, it can not be said that a case of breach of public order is made out. At the most it is a case of breach of law and order.

5. For the reasons given in the judgment dated 4-10-96 in Special Civil Application No.3879/96 it is found that the allegations and materials, on the basis of which the detention order has been passed, do not constitute a case of breach of public order and it is at the most a case of breach of law and order. The detention order, therefore, can not be sustained in the eye of law.

6. Accordingly this Special Civil Application is allowed and the impugned detention order dated 2-5-96 passed by the District Magistrate, Jamnagar is hereby quashed and set aside and the petitioner's detention is declared to be illegal. The respondents are directed to release the petitioner and set him at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute.
